

The European Training Consortium in Public Health and Health Promotion and Medical University of Lodz organize The 9th Concha Colomer Symposium. It will be held on July 28, 2021.

This year we will work with a very special online interactive format. The Concha Symposium is called: Participatory approaches for strengthening communities to enhance community health and wellbeing.

Every participant will have the opportunity to experience one or two workshops with a participatory method focused on participatory approaches for strengthening communities and also have a training purpose for participants.

Participation in the symposium is FREE and the deadline for registration is the 9th of July, 2021.
